PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER 4.

A CIRCULAR LETTER, from the late COMMITTEE of this City to the COMMITTEES of the other Colonies.

Philadelphia, September 25, 1770.

GENTLEMEN,

WE are ſorry to inform you that a Number of our Importers of Britiſh Merchandize, who met at Davenport's Tavern on Thurſday laſt, have reſolved to make ſuch an Alteration in our Non-importation Agreement, as will render it of no Uſe, and this without conſulting the other Colonies. As this Conduct will, we apprehend, reflect Diſhonour upon this City and Province, we think it our Duty to give you a candid and true Account of the Means by which it was effected.

When Petitions and Remonſtrances were found ineffectual, to procure the Repeal of an Act which is deſtructive to the Liberty and Property of Americans, the Importers of Britiſh Merchandize in this City, reſolved to unite with Boſton and New-York in an Agreement not to import Goods from Great-Britain, except ſome few enumerated Articles, until the Act complained of was repealed, or a general Meeting of the Subſcribers, after three Days Notice, ſhould determine otherwiſe; the Agreement was carried round to and ſubſcribed by thoſe who actually were, or who from their Circumſtances probably might become Importers; the Number of the Subſcribers did not Amount to 300; the reſt of the Inhabitants concurred in the Meaſure, ſo as to diſcountenance and diſcourage any Attempts to violate it. A Committee of twenty Perſons was choſen to ſee that the Agreement was punctually obſerved, and to correſpond with the Committees in the other Colonies, as well as with the Committee of Merchants in London. Four Gentlemen, who had been appointed to forward a Memorial to the Merchants, Traders and Manufacturers of Britain, were added to the Committee: Of theſe, twenty agreed to act: For ſome Time the greateſt Harmony ſubſiſted: Letters were written to the neighbouring Colonies, to encourage thoſe who had adopted the Non-importation Plan to perſiſt in obſerving it, and to induce others, who had not come into it, to unite with their Siſter Colonies; at the ſame Time, Care was taken to ſee that the Agreement we had entered into was punctually obſerved.

After a while ſeven withdrew from the Committee, four of whom perſonally reſigned, and as one was in England, the Committee was reduced to twelve. The Plan of Non-importation not producing an immediate and total Repeal of the Act; ſome whoſe living, and others whoſe Proſpects of Gain depended upon importing Goods, began to be uneaſy under theſe Reſtrictions: With theſe, the Members who had broken off from the Committee aſſociated: Sundry Meetings were held; and in May laſt, Meaſures being previouſly concerted, a vigorous Puſh was made to break the Agreement entered into: The Voice of the Public, which was againſt them, and ſome concurring Circumſtances, prevented them from carrying their Deſign at that Time; but the Defection of New-York, which followed ſoon after, giving them freſh Spirits, they rallied again, and having ſecretly concerted a Plan, they got a Paper drawn up, ſigned by themſelves and ſeven others, which they preſented to the Chairman of the Committee on the Evening of the 12th Inſtant; and becauſe the Committee would not comply with their Propoſal, which was contrary to the Non-importation Agreement, the Gentlemen themſelves, without conſulting the Committee, ordered Notices to be ſent round to call a general Meeting of the Subſcribers at Davenport's Tavern, in order that none but Subſcribers might be preſent. A Number of the Subſcribers diſguſted at their Proceedings, refuſed to meet them. The Committee, however, with a View, if poſſible, to reſtrain them from any raſh Steps, which might bring Reproach on this City and Province, attended the Meeting, and having pointed out the Danger to which the Liberty of America was expoſed, urged the Neceſſity of preſerving the Union of the Colonies, as the only Means of averting that Danger; and hinted the Odium that muſt fall on this City and its Inhabitants, if we ſeparated from the other Colonies; they propoſed the following Queſtions:

1. Whether it will not be for the Reputation of this City to conſult the other Colonies, before any Breach is made in our Agreement?

2. Whether adopting the Maryland or Virginia Agreement, or ſomething ſimilar thereto, will not be for the Intereſt of this Province, and at the ſame Time preſerve the Union of the Colonies?

3. Whether it is the Mind of the Perſons aſſembled, that we will adopt the Maryland or Virginia Agreement, or what other Meaſure? [illegible] New-York, Boſton, &c. will [illegible] the Meaſure?

1. Are you of Opinion that the Non-[illegible] as it now ſtands, ſhould be altered?

2. Are you of Opinion that the Alter[illegible] Importation of Goods from Great-Britain, except Tea, [illegible] of Duties, for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America?

3. Are you of Opinion that the Non-importation Agreement ſhould be entirely diſſolved?

To the firſt Queſtion, 37 Perſons preſent and 30 [illegible] Anſwered in the Affirmative, and 3 in the Negative. To the ſecond Queſtion, 37 Perſons preſent and 30 [illegible] Anſwered in the Affirmative, and 3 in the Negative. To the third Queſtion, 37 Perſons preſent and 30 [illegible] Anſwered in the Affirmative, and 3 in the Negative.

Upon theſe Anſwers being given, the Gentlemen who had called the Meeting, propoſed that the Non-importation Agreement ſhould be diſſolved, and that the Merchants ſhould be at Liberty to import Goods from Great-Britain, except Tea, and ſuch Goods as are ſubject to the Payment of Duties, for the Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue in America.

This Propoſal was oppoſed by many Perſons preſent, and it was propoſed that the Non-importation Agreement ſhould be altered in ſuch Manner as to allow the Importation of certain Articles from Great-Britain, which were enumerated, and that the Importation of all other Articles ſhould be ſtopped, until the Act complained of was repealed, or a general Meeting of the Subſcribers, after three Days Notice, ſhould determine otherwiſe. This Propoſal was alſo oppoſed by many Perſons preſent, and the Gentlemen who had called the Meeting, finding that the Meaſures they had propoſed were not approved of by the Majority of the Meeting, withdrew, and left the Meeting to act as they thought proper.

The Meeting then appointed a Committee to wait upon the Committee of Merchants, and to acquaint them that the Meeting had appointed a Committee to correſpond with the Committees in the other Colonies, and that they had appointed the Committee of Merchants to correſpond with them, and that they had

Sunday last the Ship Carolina, Miles Lowley, is arrived here in six Weeks from LONDON, by whom we have received the following INTELLIGENCE, viz.

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 14.

WEDNESDAY some dispatches arrived at the Earl of Hillsborough's office, from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina; which it is said were submitted the same day to the privy council held at St. James's.

Lords Weymouth, Rochford, March, and Sir Edward Hawke, as well as Earls Gower and Northington, were present at the council held on Wednesday at St. James's.

It is said that a bill for a sumptuary law is intended to be brought into parliament next session, to prevent the further growth of gaming, luxury, and licentiousness.

At the late visit of a certain Ambassador to Lord Weymouth, it is said, that he insisted on knowing the destination of our men of war now fitting out; but his lordship assured him, that the English would by no means be accountable to any nation on that head: Upon which the Ambassador replied, that if the English thought proper to drive his country into a war, his court would be prepared for it; and immediately turning upon his heel, abruptly left the English Minister.

It is said very large insurances on French and Spanish property are now making at the east end of the town, on high premiums.

Friday morning last the comptroller of the general-post-office, with one of the clerks, were sent express, in a chaise and four, to Plymouth, after the last dispatched New-York bag, with orders, that if they did not overtake it there, immediately to get a vessel, and follow the packet for that purpose; supposed to be the consequence of some change of sentiments in the ministry, respecting the New-York importers.

The strictest orders are sent to New-York to support the friends of government in that colony with the utmost exertion of both the naval and military powers.

SEPTEMBER 17. Wednesday night, we are credibly informed, that the Spanish Ambassador sent an extraordinary courier, with the result of the conference he had that day with our Ministry, on the orders given for fitting out such a great number of men of war.

Saturday morning an express was sent off from the Secretary of State's office, with dispatches of importance to Lord Cathcart, our Ambassador at the court of Peterburgh.

It is reported that the Earl of Chatham has been summoned to attend a privy council to be held to-morrow at St. James's, on affairs of great importance.

It is said that a patent has passed the seal, appointing Thomas Hutchinson, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor of Massachusetts-Bay, to be Governor of that province.

Six guardships are ordered to be stationed along the North-American coast.

Dispatches of importance, relating to the secret machinations of the Spanish court, it is said, have been very lately received from Gibraltar.

It is said a fleet of observation is intended to be stationed to cruize between the land's end and Cape Finisterre.

The following story has been circulated as the subject of a late conversation:---Some days ago a letter appeared in a morning paper, (and was afterwards copied into other prints) giving a ludicrous character of one of the heads of the House of Bourbon, upon which, not only the Spanish Ambassador, but all the Ambassadors belonging to that family, joined in a memorial, which was delivered to Lord Weymouth, insisting upon condign punishment being inflicted upon the printer; and even threatening us as a nation if such satisfaction was refused. To this the Secretary of State answered, like a man of sense and spirit, that he was surprized the Ambassadors could be so ignorant of the constitution of this country, as not to know, that it was out of the power of government to punish a printer, in the way their excellencies desired; that he was sorry for the affront offered their sovereign, but the English news-papers took liberties with their own King, and a foreign Prince had no great right to be angry if he was now and then treated with the same freedom, since the laws of the land were equally the shelter of the offenders, in both cases. As to the threats, he smiled at them; but added, that if what the Printers had done could be construed a libel, the Attorney-General should be spoken to, a prosecution commenced, and such damages adjudged as a jury of Englishmen thought equitable.

Some letters from Lisbon mention, that three-fourths of the British subjects in Portugal are actually preparing to leave that kingdom.

A private letter received on Friday with the mail, mentions that part of the Russian fleet had actually passed the Dardanelles, leaving two vessels to guard the passage of the Straits.

They write from Smyrna, that some disturbances had happened at that place; and that it was reported there, that the French Ambassador had been killed at Constantinople.

The last hand has just been put to a definitive treaty between the courts of Versailles, Madrid, Vienna, and Stockholm.

At PORTSMOUTH and PLYMOUTH.

It is asserted, that an order will be issued out in a few days to press seamen.

They write from Deal, that several English sailors continue to go off in boats, to enter themselves as volunteers on board the Russian men of war now riding in the Downs----Strange that this is not prevented when we want them to man our own ships.

His Majesty's ship the Garland, at Plymouth, is put into commission, and the command of her given to Captain Lynn.

SEPTEMBER 19. Monday evening some dispatches arrived in town from the Honourable Charles O'Hara, Esq; Governor of Senegambia, brought by the Worgs, Capt. Patterson, which were immediately forwarded to the secretary's office.

Yesterday dispatches arrived in town from the court of Portugal; it is said a change in the ministry of that kingdom was hourly expected.

A great personage is reported to have declared it as his wish, that a speedy reconciliation may be effected between Britain and her colonies.

It is reported that the Russian Ambassador has abruptly left the court of Versailles: as also the French Ambassador that of Petersburgh.

It is said that the Portuguese minister has offered all reasonable satisfaction for the late insults offered to the British merchants at Lisbon.

It is said, a very spirited remonstrance has been lately sent to the courts of Madrid, and Lisbon, in the name of the Czarina, which have met with a very evasive answer.

We hear that press warrants are actually issued out for manning the fleet now getting ready, and which were to have been signed by the Lord Mayor as yesterday; that the dock-yards are to be put upon the same footing as in 1764, the entries being now open at each yard for the engagement of artificers; and that a fire-ship is also ordered to be got ready to sail with the above fleet.

SEPTEMBER 20. Yesterday there was a levee at St. James's, and afterwards a cabinet council, said to be for limiting the time for the further prorogation of the parliament, which meets on Tuesday next for that purpose. It is remarkable, that all the foreign Ministers in town were at court, except the Spanish Ambassador.

Tuesday night a great number of press warrants were issued out, in consequence of which upwards of 1500 men were pressed below Bridge, from all the ships, vessels and boats, they could meet with. The press-gangs consist of twenty-seven long boats, each carrying seven men, armed with bludgeons.

The rumour of a war has caused a great stagnation in the coal trade of London; the ships are very slack in coming to the Thames for fear of a press, and those who have a stock of coals are afraid to part with them.

It is said, orders are gone to all the sea-ports in the Mediterranean, to prevent any seamen of Great-Britain from entering into foreign service, and to recall them home.

Wednesday some dispatches were received from Lord Harcourt at Paris.

It is said, a very laconic answer has been given to the demands of a certain foreign Ambassador, relative to the reason of the present naval armaments of this kingdom.

It is said the prospect of a speedy war, has occasioned an alteration in the plan of operations respecting the colonies.

The press continues very hot, as well upon the river up as far as Chelsea, as in all the streets and lanes in both London and Westminster. The press gangs were in the streets, at the west end of the town, yesterday morning by seven o'clock.

It is reported that the different American provinces have instructed their Agents here to use all possible means to bring their affairs under the consideration of parliament as soon as possible.

SEPTEMBER 25. Yesterday morning some dispatches arrived in town from Sir William Trelawny, his Majesty's Governor of Jamaica, which were immediately forwarded to his Majesty at Richmond.

It is confidently reported that the present Ministry will be continued, notwithstanding every effort has been made use of to remove them, as they are promised all the continuance authority can give.

We are assured, that yesterday at two o'clock an express arrived at the Admiralty, with an account that the Spaniards have landed 500 men, and taken possession of Falkland's Isle, and made our troops prisoners of war.

A categorical answer had been demanded from the court of Spain, whether they would immediately relinquish all pretensions to Falkland's Island.

The Lords of the Admiralty are so perfectly convinced of the French and Spanish hostile measures, that they apprehend they can not act quick enough to be upon a footing with them.

The naval armament now fitting out, is certainly in consequence of the discovery of the author of the fire at Portsmouth.

SEPTEMBER 27. It is said that his Excellency the Spanish Ambassador is in constant expectation of being recalled, on which account preparations are now making for his departure.

It is said that the Ambassador will be sent from the British court to the Court of Madrid, and that this is the true reason why one was not immediately appointed on the resignation of George Pitt, Esq.

Friday two expresses, on the back of one another, passed through Bromley, on their way to Hayes.

It is reported that Lord North waited upon the Earl of Chatham, a few days since, at his Lordship's seat at Hayes, but upon what business is a profound secret.

The Earl of Chatham, it is said, is in the highest credit with a Great Personage: His declaration, when he pledged his honour in the House of Lords, that the Spaniards had already struck a blow against us in some part of world, being now verified.

It is now generally conjectured, that Lord Chatham's intelligence came by means of the King of P------; a friendly correspondence having commenced between that illustrious Sovereign and the patriotic Earl when in power, which has ever since continued.

A board of Admiralty is to be held this day at the Admiralty office, Charing-cross, when some material matters respecting the several fleets of ships now fitting out, will be taken into consideration.

Last night twenty per cent. was given to insure ships from the Leeward Islands, but to return fifteen in case of no war before their arrival.

It is said, that the critical ministry intend to avail themselves of the present crisis of affairs between Turkey and Russia, by demanding an exclusive trade to the latter with respect to tin, lead, coarse cloths, long ells, worsted stuffs, and tobacco, all which are to be exported duty free.

Advices by yesterday's mails inform us, that the inhabitants of the Morea, on hearing of the total defeat of the Ottoman fleet, had taken arms, and massacred, in their turn, all the Turks who fell into their hands.

By the same channel, we learn, that the Greeks of Lavidia and Thessaly have revolted against the Turks, and that the Russian flag is flying on many islands of the Archipelago.

The Russian fleet was at anchor the 16th of August between the island of Scio and the Asiatic continent.

The intelligence brought by the Favourite Sloop is considered only as a confirmation of the commencement of hostilities by the Spaniards; even before the Tamer Sloop, which arrived in May, left that place. The accounts then published agree in substance with the letter sent on Monday night from the Admiralty Office to Lloyd's Coffee-House, with respect to the number of ships and the forces sent by the Spaniards, who had landed before the Tamer Sloop came away. Our force there at that time was too small to make any resistance, being only two Sloops of fifteen guns, and it is looked upon as the best method they could pursue, for one to bring home the intelligence the soonest possible, and for the other to watch their motions as long as the Spaniards would suffer them to continue, which was till the beginning of [illegible], when they took possession of Port Egmont.

The Spaniards have taken care to be armed at all points to receive us. A new Governor of Cadiz has put that place, and the adjoining coast, into a proper state of defence; and General O'Reily, who arrived at Madrid in July or August from the Havana, assured his Catholic Majesty, that every place in that part of the world had been visited by him, and was left in thorough repair.

After the notice given to the merchants that they may take care to secure their effects, some people have been sanguine enough to lay wagers, that war will be declared within the course of the month. Those, however, who are more to be depended on, say, that an event of so much importance will hardly take place before the meeting of Parliament, and the Ministry will venture upon no step of that kind without the concurrent sense of the Legislature. In the mean time, however, the most vigorous preparations will be made, and all things got in readiness to act with spirit, if a war should be found unavoidable.

A committee of merchants of this metropolis is already appointed to conduct the American business during the ensuing Session of Parliament.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 13.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GENERAL COMMITTEE

Gives this Notice to the PUBLIC, That

PHILIP TIDYMAN,

JEWELLER, in BROAD-STREET,

Member to the GENERAL RESOLUTIONS,

has been detected importing, in a ſecret and clandeſtine manner, and in direct Violation of his ſolemn Engagement, ſeveral Caſes of Plate, Jewels, and other Goods, to a conſiderable Value, by the Union, Captain Coombes, from London; and having been called before the Committee, on Saturday laſt Inſtant, to anſwer for the ſame, inſtead of making a candid and ingenuous Confeſſion of his Crime, he obſtinately denied the Fact, until confronted by Capt. Coombes's Mate, who ſwore he had delivered three Caſes to Mr. Tidyman himſelf, marked as were mentioned in the Ship's Miniſeſt, or reported by the ſaid Tidyman to the Committee. The ſaid Tidyman being confronted with ſuch Proof, promiſed to deliver up all his Invoices to the Committee; yet ſtill endeavoured to conceal a conſiderable Part thereof; moſt of which has been ſince diſcovered, by ſuch of his original Invoices as he at different Times produced. The Committee however, are perſuaded that the ſaid Tidyman has concealed one of the Caſes, which, probably, may be the moſt valuable: And as, in the whole of this Affair, he has been guilty of the moſt flagrant Falſehood and Deceit, even ſo far as to produce a fictitious Letter, pretending, that certain Articles contained in the ſix Caſes reported in the Manifeſt, were ſent him as a Preſent, from a Kinſman in England; which ſince appear, by his own Invoice, to contain Merchandize, ſhipped by his Order, and for his Accompt.---The Committee therefore, at an extra Meeting, on Monday the 29th Inſtant, required the Attendance of Mr. Tidyman, in order to adviſe him to diſcover and re-ſhip the Whole of the Goods, which he had ſo treacherouſly imported:---But he not attending then, or at a ſubſequent Meeting, and abſolutely refuſing to appear, the Committee think it their Duty to publiſh the ſaid PHILIP TIDYMAN, as an audacious and incorrigible Violator of the General Reſolutions, deſerving the Contempt of every good Man; and it is expected that no Subſcriber will, hereafter, have any Dealings with him, unleſs he ſhall make full Atonement for his late baſe and perfidious Behaviour.

AMERICAN BALSAM,

Extracted from the moſt Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Diſorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in NEW-YORK, LONG-ISLAND, and elſewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balſam, Eſſence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe hire, for the ſeveral Diſorders hereafter mentioned.

FOR common green or freſh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dreſſing, by cloſing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balſam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Veſſels are divided, &c. it ſtops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the moſt inveterate Ulcers, only waſh them and keep them clean, uſing firſt if there be any proud Fleſh, a common Cauſtick, to take the Exceſſence away, then apply the Balſam on Lint. If the Ulcers ſhould happen to be fiſtulous, inject by a Syringe, and after cloſe the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balſam, and ſo repeat. There are Witneſſes undeniable of the Balſam alone curing a Fiſtula in Ano, now preſent in New-York:—The Author of this Balſam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fiſtula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Inciſion, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breaſt, Inflamation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obſtructed by tough viſcid Phlegm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balſam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning faſting, and at Night going to bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruiſes, nothing is better, for it ſcatters coagulated Blood, and ſtops Blood that might be occaſioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Veſſels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleuriſy, after Bleeding, (where it is required) give a Tea-Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then Twenty or Thirty Drops of Spirituous Nitri Dulcis, that is the ſweet Spirits of Nitre.—It cures Conſumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they paſs the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a Tea-Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Doſe. AUGUST 23. Yesterday General Conway was at court, and we are informed made a report to his Majesty of the state of the stores and fortifications of Portsmouth, which were all found in excellent order.

Yesterday there was a full Board of Admiralty, at which Sir Edward Hawke was present, he was afterwards at court, and had a long conference with his Majesty.

It is said that the accession of the important post of Lord Justice-General of Scotland, a place now possessed by the Duke of Queensbury, and worth three thousand pounds per annum, will shortly be conferred on the Earl of March.

The latest accounts from the East-Indies inform, that Sommero, the late emigrant from obscurity, was a great favourite with the famous Angria, whose settlement was destroyed by Admiral Watson, in the year 1757, that he afterwards served as a serjeant of the Seapoys in the army commanded by the famous, but unfortunate General Lally, under whom he not only learned all the discipline belonging to an army, but further imbibed an aversion to the English, on some national distinctions made among themselves. Those accounts add, that the famous Hyder Ali, who so lately concluded a peace under the walls of Madras is not only privy to, but likewise an ally with Sommero, and a director of him in all his schemes.

Private letters from Bengal inform, that the natives are all in arms against the English, and that a very considerable army is upon march towards the principal settlements. The French apparently are not concerned, but it is believed by all the company's servants that the war will be general.

Some people are of opinion, that the consent of the majority of the trading inhabitants of New-York, to the free importation of British manufactures, was obtained by certain court influence, with a view to give more colour to the rigorous measures that are to be pursued against the Bostonians, who are now, it is said, by their obstinacy, become the object of ministerial revenge.

They write from Gibraltar, that one of the most beneficial branches of trade which the British colonies now carry on to the Mediterranean, is the sale of North-American built ships, which they freight up the streights, and generally sell both cargo and vessel together for ready money.

We are assured, that the report some time current, concerning General Gage being recalled from the command of the troops in America, is entirely void of foundation.

The ships that are now fitting out, and the sailors that are invited to enter as volunteers on board the royal navy, are, we are informed, intended as a fleet of observation, as the French and Spaniards, it is observed, are armed in all their ports.

Captain Crookshanks, who, ever since the year 1745, has been suspended, is, we hear, to be restored, and to command up board this fleet.

It is said the fleet of observation intended for the Mediterranean, will take on board the full complement of marines, according to each ship's rate, as in time of war.

This week upwards of thirty navy lieutenants, from the half-pay list, have been appointed to do duty on board the men of war now fitting out at Portsmouth and Plymouth, by the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

AUGUST 28. By a private letter from Madras it is said, that notwithstanding the late peace with Hyder Ali, they hardly knew how to trust him; for which reason the garrison of that fort had been considerably reinforced, and the officers and soldiers had orders to be constantly upon their guard, to prevent surprize. It is added, that he has more than 400 French officers in his army, who are incessantly instructing the Marattas in the European discipline, in which they have already so far succeeded, as to enable them to form a regular attack.

It is certain that Sommero and Hyder Ali act in concert; their present enterprize is not against the English, but against the natives at a great distance from any European settlement. The Marattas are a people constantly at war; they are frequently by-standers while the Princes or Nabobs of the country contend one another, and then fall upon the conquerors and share their booty.

They write from the Hague, that his Prussian Majesty has dispatched a courier with orders for his Envoy to leave the Ottoman Porte without taking leave, and that orders were immediately issued out for raising a number of men, and the recruiting parties were very busy all over Prussia and Brandenburg, and met with great success. From the vast preparations his Prussian Majesty is making, it is imagined, that he intends soon to strike some important blow.

By letters received yesterday from Italy, the accounts formerly given in this paper of the successes of Admiral Elphinstone against the Turks, in the Morea, is confirmed by authority.

AUGUST 29. By advices from the Archipelago, four French ships of war have been lately descryed in those seas, steering towards Constantinople, probably with a design to assist the Turks, which probably also may have occasioned the hasty orders lately issued on our part, for fitting out a fleet.

Letters by the last post from Dublin, mention, that upwards of 200 natives of that kingdom, had just embarked on board a ship for the island of St. John's, Newfoundland, where they are going to settle.

Orders are sent to Ireland for shipping several hundred tons of provisions at Dublin, and Corke, for his Majesty's garrisons at Gibraltar and Minorca.

Captain Wheelock is appointed to the command of the Achilles, a guardship of 60 guns, at Portsmouth, in the room of Captain Fielding, lately appointed to the Rainbow man of war at Woolwich.

It is said, that the opening a rendezvous, and offering a bounty for inlisting seamen, means nothing more than to supply the several guardships, out of which a number of sailors have been lately taken, to man a small fleet, intended for the Mediterranean.

It is said, some large insurances have this week been made in the city on Portuguese property.

Whether the appointment of Colonel Luttrell, to the post of Adjutant-General in Ireland, does not threaten danger to the liberty of the subject, is, we hear, the question to be debated to-morrow evening at the Crown Tavern in Bow-lane: The debates beginning precisely at eight o'clock.

Letters from Birmingham mention, that one house only there had orders for fabricating military utensils, to the amount of 30,000l. for the use of the Americans.

AUGUST 30. Yesterday after breaking up of the levee at St. James's, the Earl of Rochford had a long conference with his Majesty, said to be on American affairs.

Monday night his Excellency the Russian Ambassador received an express from his court, with advices, said to be of great importance, which were yesterday communicated to the Earl of Rochford, one of his Majesty's secretaries of state.

The last letters from Constantinople mention, that the Hon. Mr. Murray the British Ambassador had just communicated a piece of news to the Ottoman Ministry, which gave such general satisfaction, that his Excellency was highly caressed, and had many costly presents heaped on him by the grandees.

Positive orders have been dispatched to the Governors of Gibraltar and Port-Mahon not to admit any of the Russian men of war, which have lately been engaged with the Turkish fleet, into either of their harbours, neither are they to have any communication with them, &c. Russia should have got the [illegible] engagements with the Turks.

By the most authentic account from the Morea [illegible] that the Russians only attacked that [illegible] to draw the attention of the Porte to that quarter, and neglect places of more importance; the principal is the former, being to carry the war under the walls of Constantinople, which it seems very likely they will effect.

We hear it is settled that Lord North is to continue [illegible] and to carry both the present set and plans into the house of [illegible] sessions; but what is intended after the address is voted, is not known or determined.

It is confidently reported at the west end of the town, that the Duke of Grafton has advised a new ministry to be formed from both parties, the modelling of which he has recommended to the Earl of Chatham.

Lord Chatham, it is said, spends three hours of the forenoon of every day alone, in his study, the key of which he keeps himself, and nobody is admitted into it.

From the character and abilities of certain personages who have declared themselves in favour of the Americans, there seems to be no doubt of a signal victory in the ensuing political campaign.

It is said by those who seem to be in the secret, that it has been privately hinted to the colonists, to have patience for two months, which time would effectually terminate all their grievances.

It is whispered, that Lord Chatham has communicated to the ministry certain very important and alarming intelligence, lately procured from the continent.

A rumour was this morning current in the city, that a considerable British naval force will soon visit the East-Indies.

A correspondent at Dublin writes, that the ministry have absolutely lost all hopes of carrying any successful measure in the ensuing parliament there, and therefore the meeting of it will be put off as long as possible.

We are assured, that Colonel Luttrell will be removed from his office of Adjutant-General of Ireland, at the request of a general officer, who refuses to hold his office in England if he is to act with such a collegue.

We hear a promotion of flag-officers in the royal navy will soon take place, and that Commodore Proby stands foremost in the list.

Orders are given for nine sail of transport vessels to be taken up on government contract, and to sail for Corke in Ireland.

Twelve ships of the line, 2 of 60, 3 of 40, 4 of 36, and 3 of 20 guns, will shortly sail for the coast of North-America, where they are to be stationed for three years.

We hear, orders have been sent from the Board of Admiralty, to Portsmouth and Plymouth, to break up several ships of war, which are thought unfit for farther service, and new ones are to be built in their stead.

On the 13th inst. two ships of the line sailed from Brest, to join the other French ships in the Mediterranean.---The French have now a very formidable squadron on that station.

It is certainly on the tapis now, for the powers of Europe to interpose in the war between the Russians and Turks, such a step being thought absolutely necessary.

It is said the merchants in the Portugal trade, have received a promise of the most ample satisfaction for all their grievances, from authority.

AUGUST 31. Yesterday morning an express, brought from Constantinople, was received at the secretary of state's office in Cleveland-Row, which was immediately dispatched to Richmond.

Yesterday morning an express arrived at the Spanish Ambassador's house in Great Ormond-street, from the court of Madrid.

On Tuesday evening the Right Hon. Lord [illegible] arrives at Paris, and last night he was expected at his house in Lincoln's Inn fields.

It is confidently said, that orders are sent to Commodore Proby, to send a sufficient force to Algiers, to demand satisfaction for the insults offered to the British flag by the Algerine Corsairs, who are very numerous and insolent in the Mediterranean.

It is said, that in case of a future war, the following alterations and additions will take place in the army: Every company to consist of 100 private men, and every regiment ten companies, as usual.

It is reported, that a recall has been sent to several eminent Surgeons on the half-pay list, now in foreign services, who are to return home with all expedition.

Authentic advices from Paris say, that the French fleet of observation in the Mediterranean has been just augmented by three ships of the line, and frigates, one from Brest, and the other two from Toulon.

The same advices add, that the great progress of the Russians in the Archipelago has alarmed the Cabinet at Versailles, who are taking measures accordingly.

The men of war intended for the Streights and the Mediterranean, it is said, are to be commanded by the Admirals Geary and Edgcumbe.

Wednesday twenty ton weight of bullets, with 500 barrels of gunpowder, were shipped at the Tower, for the use of the men of war lying at Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Spithead.

SEPTEMBER 1. Their Danish Majesties have been very pressing with the Princess Dowager of Wales to accompany them to Copenhagen, and stay there till after Christmas, but her highness has most politely declined the invitation, and proposes to be at Carlton-house very soon.

Yesterday the Russian Ambassador received a circumstantial account of the victories obtained over the Turks, both by sea and land, which he communicated to the Earl of Rochford, one of the secretaries of state.

To the account given of Sommero, the emigrant in the East-Indies, we have to add, that while with General Lally, who was a native of Ireland, he learned a good deal of the French language, so as to speak it pretty well: He was taken prisoner by the English at the siege of Pondicherry, and applied himself to acquiring that language likewise, in which he soon made himself understood. He has acquired a competent knowledge of fortification and gunnery, and gives great encouragement to all Europeans, but particularly to engineers. He has trained up his soldiers in the French exercise, and dresses them in short cloaths, after the European manner.

A letter from Petersburgh mentions, that the Empress of Russia has ordered a sword of curious workmanship, together with her own picture, both enriched with jewels, to be sent to Admiral Elphinstone.

Admiral Elphinstone, the Russian Admiral, was formerly in the service of the East-India company. He has a brother at this time a captain of an East-Indiaman. The powers the Czarina has given him are beyond all precedent. His authority is unlimitted. The condemnation of prizes rests in him solely; the distribution of the shares among the officers and sailors is to be according to his fiat; and from which there is to be no appeal. ---A gentleman of no little consideration in the city is gone to Venice on the occasion, to act as agent to the admiral and the whole fleet, in disposing of the plunder made, and such prizes as the commander shall condemn, and any ships of his squadron send in. Another [illegible] of consequence is also appointed agent in London, to which market it may be presumed [illegible] to send several of the prizes of the Turks [illegible], that may fall into the hands of the Russians. It is said that the money arising from the plunder and the prizes already made, will amount to the [illegible] for the Empress [illegible] part for Russia, and [illegible] the expences of the service in negotiating the [illegible] of the [illegible] will then [illegible]

Letters arrived yesterday from Germany, declare, that the plague has actually broke out in the Confines of Podolia, and that the Emperor has taken all possible precautions to prevent its spreading into his dominions, by reinforcing the chain of troops on his frontiers.

A private letter from the Hague insinuate, that the Empress of Russia had loudly complained against the subjects of the States-General, for the underhand assistance given by them to the Turks.

Since the late victory obtained by the Russians over the Turks, a secret treaty, it is said, has been concluded on between three maritime powers, whose combination ought to be looked upon with an attentive eye by our court.

Yesterday a board of Treasury was held, at the breaking up of which, an express was sent to Lord North, at Dillington, in Somersetshire, his Lordship not having come to town as was expected.

By advices received yesterday from the Continent, we are assured, that a separation will certainly soon take place between two great Personages there, who now live very unhappily.

A great Lady's journey to the Continent was on the above account; as is the visit of two great Personages from the North.

It is confidently said, that a certain defaulter will again leave this kingdom before the middle of next month.

General Hervey, whose honour and conduct is irreproachable, we are assured, has publicly declared, that he disclaims any consent or privity to a late promotion, and very candidly gives it out to all his friends, as well as every friend to government, that he would be understood to wash his hands entirely of every step relating to so detestable a measure.

A suspicion of a descent in Ireland, which has twice been defeated, perhaps has occasioned the mail to have been so often robbed---Intelligence is the soul of all politics.

Earl Sandwich's arrival is to take on him the government of Ireland, which must soon be vacant.

The New Edward, Capt. Williams, has compleated her lading, and is expected to sail for New-York to-morrow. This is the second ship in the port of London that has been laden with goods for New-York, since the merchants of that province have departed from their resolutions.

Yesterday it was strongly reported upon Change, that the Spaniards had stopped two millions of specie at Cadiz, and seized our ships in that harbour; upon which Bank Stock fell one per cent. and other stocks in proportion.

We hear a Remonstrance from York will certainly be presented a very few days after the meeting of parliament.

It is beyond a doubt, that the Irish parliament will not meet till the winter after next: And it is also certain, there will be no change in the Lieutenancy of that kingdom till after another session.

The public may be assured, notwithstanding what has been said to the contrary, that the exportation to New-York is now so effectually opened, that since the 15th instant, when the packet arrived with the report of the committee in favour of that important intelligence, there has been but one shipping day without large entries to that province; some of them of such an extent, that the bill of entry, which contains the register of exports, was twice last week two pages; a circumstance seldom known at this time of the year in the most prosperous period of commerce.

It is now confidently said to be positively resolved on by the Ministry, to procure an act next session, to exempt the colony of New-York from paying any duty on the teas they shall import; which act is to extend to such other colonies, as shall, from time to time, shew the same dutiful and conciliating spirit with that of New-York.

This morning an express was sent off to the commander in chief of his Majesty's islands of Jersey and Guernsey.

At the rising up of the Council at St. James's, it was reported, that war against France would very soon be proclaimed. [illegible] for the naval preparations now carrying on with great forwardness.

Thursday two messengers arrived at St. James's from Holland; one of whom, it is said, has brought some agreeable news from the Prussian court.

We hear that the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland has ordered all the officers of his Majesty's forces upon the Irish establishment, to return immediately to their respective posts in that kingdom.

We are positively assured that Sir Edward Hawke has strongly urged the necessity of taking into immediate service twenty thousand seamen.

It is whispered that three Crown officers in a Southern American Colony are ordered to be recalled.

It is said Sir Francis Bernard has been promised the first vacancy in a very lucrative sinecure in Ireland, said to be worth two thousand pounds per annum.

Yesterday two more ships were taken up in the river, on account of the merchants, to export British manufactures to New-York.

A letter received last night from Birmingham says, that as soon as the resolution of the New-York merchants to import was known at that place, several hundreds of hands, who were out of employment, were engaged.

We hear that a petition will be presented to both Houses of Parliament, for laying fresh duties on a number of commodities for exportation to all foreign parts, the colonies excepted.

PORTSMOUTH, August 21. Yesterday orders came to the officers here, for their immediate opening places of rendezvous, for entering sailors on board the following men of war here and at Plymouth, viz. the Achilles, 60 guns; Centaur, 74; St. Antonio, 64; Bellona, 74; Arrogant, 74; Ajax, 74; Dorsetshire, 70; Rippon, 64; Hero, 74; Cornwall, 74; Tamerlane, 74; Burford, 70; Belisle, 70; Firm, 64; and Edgar, 64: And that they may be manned as soon as possible, great encouragement is offered to all able seamen that will enter.---It is said that as soon as these ships have got their complement of men, they will be stationed in the Mediterranean as a fleet of observation.

THOSE indebted to us by Bond, Note, or Account, are desired to discharge the same, by the first of January next, at farthest; after which Time no Indulgence will be given, or further Notice.

RUN-AWAY from the subscriber, about the middle of July last, a MUSTEE FELLOW, named ABRAHAM, formerly the property of Eleanor Muncrief; he is about five feet ten inches high, plays very well on the fiddle, and is well known in Charles-Town and Goose-Creek.
